

Listening to Needs

How Requests for Evaluation
Assistance Can Teach Us to Be Better Evaluators

Stephanie D. H. Evergreen
The Evaluation Center

A hand is shown holding a white rectangular card with rounded corners. The card contains text and a logo. The background is a soft, light-colored gradient.

Stephanie D. H. Evergreen
Evaluation Explainer

Evaluate*e*
EVALUATION RESOURCE CENTER for advanced technological education process

evaluation

impact outcomes

Step Zero

WHAT?

What does this mean for us as evaluators?

Become an Evaluation
Interpreter

Be Proactive with Clients

Provide Resources

Think about ways we can work together

Spread
the word

We hear you!

Stephanie D. H. Evergreen
The Evaluation Center